YOUNGSTOWN PARAGRAPHS

Written in Pleasing Style By Our

Special Corespondent. Feb. 29-It will be four years, or not until 1916, before we can use this date again. Four years is a long time between letters, but we to be with you more frequently than that. In fact, it is the intention to dish up something every week for Dispatch readers, even at the risk of making some of them dreadfully tir-ed. But the displeased must take their medicine and try to look pleas-

A burglar visited the Stambaugh-Thompson hardware store, right in the heart of the business district, Monday night and ransacked the offices in search of valuables. He found $70 and made his getaway without being discovered. The robbery was not discovered until the store was opened Tuesday morning. It seems to be pretty certain that this city is the hangout for a bad and bold bunch

When the entire township is made a part of the city all the parks will come under control of the city park commission. Then the men have had charge of Mill Creek park for so many years will have to sit away back and rest from their arduous labors.

Why not build a skyscraper city building and completely fill it with officials of one kind and another? There are patriots world without end clamoring for recognition and they are just as much entitled to pull down a municipal salary as a bunch of fellows now on the pay-roll. City and county officials held a conference Tuesday afternoon regarding repairs on the Elephant bridge, which for years has been a source of annoyance. The county missioners have ransferred $15,000 to the bridge fund and it is presumed this will be spent in repairing the old bridge. It has been discovered that some of the heating pipes in the new two million dollar temple of justice built by the county are in bad condition, due to the fact that they are laid in ashes, and they will probably have to be replaced. Response to appeals for financial assistance for the visting nurse association is slow, less than $500 having been subscribed. And, this, too, in a city so full of millionaires that you cannot walk a block without rubbing elbows with one of them. But, possibly, hanging on to their dough is the way they became rich. Joseph W. Wess, who is a progressive of the type that does things, is being urged to be a candidate for delegate to the republican national convention from this district. Joe is for Roosevelt first, last and all the time, and the way he would whoop alone well be worth witnessing. By all means send Joseph to the convention and there is no doubt about the fact being made known that
